

I have no privacy. I pay my phone bill, so why do these telemarketers think they have a right to use MY PHONE. Now they are using tape recordings, so I cannot even ask them to remove my name from their phone list. Where is my right to privacy. I think someone has their rights confuse. So my only alternative is to cancel my phone service? This makes no sense to me.